Mayor's Thoughts... National Volunteer week is April 10-16. This week is about recognizing and encouraging citizens to seek out imaginative ways to engage our community. To help celebrate, your Fairview City Council is planning a Volunteer Recognition Dinner, "An Evening with the Stars" on April 12 at Fairview City Hall. We have hundreds of volunteers that help make Fairview a better place to live and work through our city committees, Fairview United Neighbors (FUN), and Citizens on Park Patrol (COPP). The City Council appreciates all of you that volunteer and wants to acknowledge and celebrate your efforts. The dinner will begin at 6:30 PM followed by the awards program at 6:45 PM.

Immediately after the award program there will be a short State of the City presentation covering our 2015 accomplishments, 2016-2017 Council goals, and our economic development future.

If you have any questions about the Volunteer Recognition Dinner or the State of the City presentation please contact the City Recorder at 503.674.6224. Mayor Ted
